

Aztec Group Head of Innovation to speak at the LPGP Connect 3rd Annual CFO/COO Private Debt London conference

On Friday 1 October our Head of Innovation, Tom Bennett, will speak on the 'Unlocking Value: Data, Technology and the Future of Private Debt' panel session at the LPGP Connect 3rd Annual CFO/COO Private Debt London conference.

He'll discuss key topics such as big data, AI, the decisions influencing outsourcing and the latest on cybersecurity. The session will be moderated by Oliver Freigang, CEO and Co-Founder at Qashqade. Also joining the panel will be Eric Huttman, CEO of MillTechFX by Millennium Global and Ben Goderski, Sales Director at SS&C Advent.

The conference, which we're also exhibiting at, will bring together senior debt professionals to discuss the latest issues for global debt fund managers looking to stay ahead of the competition. The full-day event will explore the most pressing developments facing CFOs and COOs looking to deliver operational excellence.

We have a number of representatives attending. If you'd like to set up a meeting, please contact Ore Adegbotolu on ore.adegbotolu@aztecgroup.co.uk.
