Aztec Group ranked the leading fund administrator in the Channel Islands

Independent fund research company, Monterey Insight, has confirmed the Aztec Group as the leading fund administrator in the Channel Islands, with US$218 billion of assets under administration.

The annual Jersey and Guernsey Fund Reports provide in-depth analysis of the islands' funds industries and service providers, including administrators, legal advisors and auditors. Growth during the 12 months to June 2019 was strong, with fund assets serviced in the Channel Islands increasing by 10% to US$893 billion. We have again outpaced market growth by increasing our assets under administration across the islands by 34% during the year.

Edward Moore, CEO and Founder of the Group, commented:

"We're delighted to have been named the Channel Islands' leading fund administrator. This is an incredible achievement, and we're immensely proud of our teams in Guernsey, Jersey and the wider Group for the part they continue to play in helping us consolidate our position as market-leader. It is a true testament to the professionalism of our employees and their unwavering commitment and dedication to delivering the best possible service to our clients."
