

We're sponsoring the BVCA Alternative Fund Strategies Conference

We're proud to be sponsoring the upcoming BVCA Alternative Fund Strategies conference, taking place in London on 30 March 2022.

The conference will focus on infrastructure, private debt and secondaries and will explore some of the ways private equity is diversifying as it matures.

We'll also be moderating three sessions on the day.

Ore Adegbotolu, Business Development Director will moderate at the infrastructure forum, discussing 'Responsible investment in infrastructure' and will be joined by Lily Marcel from Clifford Chance, Andrew Honan from MML Capital and Rhianydd Griffith from Hermes GPE.

At the private debt forum, Peter Brown, Group Head of Private Debt will moderate a session on 'The biggest challenges facing private debt in 2022'. He will be joined by Cassandra Fahy from Pemberton Capital Advisors, Bernard Dale from Connection Capital and Stephen Quinn from 17 Capital.

In the afternoon at the secondaries forum, Jon Ball, Client Development Director, will be moderating 'Looking ahead; what's next for the secondaries market?'. Joining Jon will be Matthieu Ducharme from Northleaf, Louis Choy from AlpInvest and Mark McDonald from DWS.

The one-day event is on taking place on Wednesday 30 March at the Riverside Building, County Hall and will bring together expert speakers to deliver a comprehensive overview on urgent matters that affect these alternative fund strategies.

A number of Aztec Group representatives will be attending the conference. If you'd like to set up a meeting, please contact Ore Adegbotolu on Ore.Adegbotolu@aztecgroup.co.uk.
