

We've appointed a new Director in our Corporate Services team

We're delighted to welcome Keith Mallet to our Corporate Services team in Jersey.

Keith joins the Group with over 20 years' senior leadership experience in corporate services and incentive plans.

In his role, Keith will join our Corporate Services leadership team and oversee a number of client relationship teams providing company secretarial, administration and accounting services to corporate structures, including fund vehicles, SPVs, trusts, co-invest vehicles, listed funds, MOMEs and management incentive plans. He will also play a central role in the ongoing expansion of the Group's corporate services offering and business development. Keith is a Fellow of the Institute of Chartered Accountants in England and Wales.

Commenting on his new position with the Group, Keith said:

"I am delighted to be joining the Aztec Group during such an exciting time, as the business continues to grow and show a real commitment to its clients and its people. I am looking forward to working closely with the team to continue delivering excellent client service."

Geraldine O'Rourke, Group Head of Corporate and Depositary Services, added:

"I am delighted to announce that Keith has joined our growing multi-jurisdictional Corporate Services team. Keith's experience will be a valuable asset to the Group at a time when we are seeing growing demand for specialist corporate services from across the market. His leadership skills will support the delivery of our strategy focused on excellent client service, and engaged and committed employees."
