Women in Leadership – Breaking barriers in the financial sector: Part 1

This episode is the first in a two-part podcast series, Women in Leadership – Breaking barriers in the financial sector.

'When there is too much silence, it is the first symptom of a dysfunctional team,' says Forensic leader at KPMG, Anne-Sophie Minaldo, who is one of the guests for this two-part podcast series.

The podcast includes extracts from an exclusive event at The British Ambassador's Residence in Luxembourg where Eva Devine, Aztec Group's Head of Depositary was joined by Anne-Sophie Minaldo, Forensic Lead at KPMG, Hind El Gaidi, Head of Luxembourg at ICG, and Barbara Leveel, Director General, Human Resources at European Investment Bank.

These three senior leaders in finance share their extensive knowledge of effecting workplace change to build better, more inclusive cultures across the financial sector.

During this episode, they discuss:

- How the power of representation and mentoring the younger generation is non-negotiable in helping the workplace change.
- What actions people should take to ensure women and men have equal space to share their ideas and opinions at work.
- Alternative ways to prepare for challenging meetings and certain aspects of your role in a way which builds confidence and drives success.
