Aztec Group appoints Maria von Oldenskiöld as Global Head of Investor Services

Aztec Group has announced the appointment of Maria von Oldenskiöld as Global Head of Investor Services, based in Luxembourg.

Joining from EQT Fund Management, Maria brings more than 20 years of experience in external audit and operational leadership, with deep expertise in the alternatives sector. Her career spans senior roles at EQT and Partners Group, where she successfully led strategic restructuring programmes, process optimisation and operational digitalisation to enhance governance, regulatory compliance, financial reporting and operational efficiency.

“Maria’s appointment is a key step in strengthening our investor services proposition,” said Richard Larnder, Chief Strategy and Transformation Officer at Aztec Group. “Her experience will be instrumental as we continue to scale with our clients to meet investors’ needs, deliver consistently excellent investor experiences and invest in smarter, more innovative ways of working.”

In her new role, Maria will lead the evolution of Aztec Group’s global investor services offering, focusing on enhancing the investor experience, expanding investor services capabilities and driving client excellence. As part of Aztec Group’s wider client services function, she will play a central role in shaping a future-ready platform that supports Aztec’s long-term growth ambitions.

“What sets Aztec apart is the strength of its people, client and investor centricity, and its commitment to innovation,” said Maria von Oldenskiöld. “By combining a people-first approach with cutting-edge technology, we can deliver investor services that are scalable, resilient and deeply trusted by clients and their investors. I am looking forward to working with the team to build on this foundation and contribute to Aztec’s strategic growth.”

Maria is the latest is a series of prominent hires for Aztec Group, following the appointment last month of industry expert Sam Metland as Head of Product and Propositions and Marcia Rothschild as European Desk Head within its U.S.

Commercial team.