Aztec Group expands Real Assets leadership team in Jersey

We’re delighted to welcome Nicola Heffernan as an Associate Director in our Real Assets leadership team.

With a career spanning fund services, private client services, and performance and reward management, Nicola brings with her an in-depth understanding of the real estate market and a strong focus on corporate governance.

In her new role, Nicola will lead an administration team providing services to a number of complex real estate funds and corporate structures, having responsibility for several key client relationships and supporting the continued development and growth of our real assets service offering.

Commenting on her appointment, Nicola said:

“I’m delighted to have joined the Aztec Group and am looking forward to working closely with the Jersey team as the business develops in the near future. The further enhancement of our real assets offering while maintaining our client-centric focus is a key part of the Group’s growth strategy, and I’m excited to contribute to the development of our services in Jersey and across the Group.”

Richard Anthony, Jersey Head of Real Assets at the Aztec Group, added:

“We continue to see strong demand for real assets fund services in Jersey, recognising the expertise our team brings to clients’ operations. Nicola is a highly experienced professional who will add significant value to our service offering as we further develop our position as a leading provider to real estate and infrastructure fund managers across Europe.”
