

Aztec Group named Best Fund Administrator at European Credit Awards 2024

Aztec Group, a leading international fund and corporate services provider, has won the award for Best Fund Administrator - Overall at the Private Equity Wire European Credit Awards for the second consecutive year.

The awards celebrate the best in fund performance and service delivery across the credit fund industry in Europe. The winners were announced at a gala event in London on 17 May 2024.

Winners are chosen based on a rigorous peer review process, where fund managers and other industry professionals vote for their preferred service providers in various categories. The awards recognise the firms that have demonstrated excellence, innovation and outstanding service to their clients.

“We are proud to receive this award, which reflects our commitment to delivering high-quality services to our private credit clients. We have invested heavily in our technology, processes and people to ensure we can support the complex and diverse needs of this fast-growing asset class,” said Kevin Hogan, Aztec Group Head of Private Credit.

He added: “I would like to thank Private Equity Wire and their readers for this recognition, as well as our clients for their continued trust and partnership. I would also like to congratulate our dedicated team of private credit professionals, who work tirelessly to provide exceptional service and value to our clients.”
