

Aztec Group named Fund Administrator of the Year at Private Equity Wire U.S. Credit Awards

Aztec Group has been recognized by Private Equity Wire as Fund Administrator of the Year – Overall in the publication's 2024 U.S. Credit Awards program.

The annual Private Equity Wire US Credit Awards recognize excellence in fund performance and service provider excellence across credit funds. Winners were announced during an awards ceremony last night in New York.

"We are honored to receive this award, which underscores our commitment to providing top-quality services to our private credit clients. We have made significant investments in technology, processes and people in the U.S. which enable us to meet the complex and diverse needs of this rapidly growing asset class," said Todd Werner, U.S. Head of Private Credit.

He added: "We would like to thank Private Equity Wire for this recognition, and our clients for their ongoing trust and partnership. I also want to congratulate our private credit team on this very well deserved recognition."
