Spanning technology innovation, client service and fund administration expertise, the three awards recognise the breadth of Aztec's proposition and its continued investment in technology and focus on supporting the evolving needs of private markets managers.

Melissa Ferraz, Chief Commercial Officer at Aztec Group said: "These awards are really about our people and the relationships they build with clients every day. Great service starts with listening, understanding what matters to them and continually looking for ways to make their experience better.

"Private markets are continuing to evolve, and expectations are changing with them. We are investing in our people, leadership and technology so that we can support that change while retaining the expertise, responsiveness and personal service our clients value most.

"I'm incredibly proud of everyone at Aztec who has contributed to these achievements, and grateful to our clients for the trust they continue to place in us."

Together, the three awards recognise the contribution of colleagues across Aztec and reinforce the Group's ambition to continue raising the bar for technology,
