

Aztec Wins European Private Markets Administrator of the Year at Funds Europe Awards 2025

Aztec Group, a premium global provider of private markets services, is proud to announce that it has been named European Private Markets Administrator of the Year at the Funds Europe Awards 2025, held in London on 20 November.

Now in its 21st year, the event marked its biggest edition yet, bringing together leading firms and professionals to celebrate excellence across the funds industry.

The judging process involved over 40 independent experts, who assessed entries and recognised outstanding achievements, including special commendations across multiple categories.

This award underscores Aztec Group's commitment to delivering best-in-class administration services for private markets clients across Europe.

It follows a series of recent award wins for Aztec Group, including Fund Administrator of the Year - Private Credit at the Private Equity Wire U.S. Awards and Fund Administrator of the Year - Tech Innovation at the Alternative Credit Investor Awards, reinforcing the Group's position as a leading provider in the private markets sector.
