

Aztec's Ore Adegbotolu to explore 2026 CFO Insights at Private Funds CFO Forum

Aztec Group's Head of Commercial, U.S., Ore Adegbotolu, will take the stage at the upcoming Private Funds CFO Forum on 3-4 February 2026, where he will unpack the emerging trends reshaping private markets finance.

Ore will join a panel of senior finance leaders from across the private markets industry to discuss the key issues and shifting priorities of CFOs and COOs as the industry faces a wave of increased LP scrutiny, rising reporting expectations and the need for more consistent, data-driven decision-making.

The discussion will draw on brand-new findings from the Private Funds CFO Insights Survey 2026, conducted by PEI Group in partnership with Aztec Group, covering data on people, processes and future planning.

The panel will be moderated by Graham Bippart, Editor of Private Funds CFO, and will feature Jill Lampert, Chief Financial and Administrative Officer at NGP Energy Capital Management, and Andrew Petri, CFO and CCO at Pingsten Partners.

Bringing together CFOs, COOs and senior finance executives from across private equity and alternative investments for two days of discussion, the Private Funds CFO Forum is one of the industry's leading gatherings for insight-sharing and peer exchange on the most pressing issues facing finance leaders today.
