

We're proudly sponsoring the Invest Europe CFO Forum 2024

Taking place in Lisbon between 23-24 May, Invest Europe CFO Forum is the leading event for CFOs, COOs and senior executives for private equity and venture capital in Europe. The event allows delegates to discuss their current initiatives, challenges, and strategic objectives. With a programme driven by industry practitioners, the CFO Forum audience is comprised of at least 66% practitioners from across Europe.

Hana Prochaska, Aztec's Head of Business Development - Europe, will be moderating a panel session called 'Generative AI: What transformative opportunities and challenges lie ahead for Fund Operations,' a hot topic circulating across the private markets industry today. Hana will be joined by Cornelius Müller, Head of Business Processes & Reporting at HQ Capital, Philipp Rose, Managing Director at Robert Bosch Venture Capital, and Fredrik Lindberg, Director - EQT Tech at EQT. The panelists will discuss:

- What are the current impacts of AI adoption on the Finance and Operations Functions?
- Is there a standardised AI solution tailored specifically for the finance world, and how does it compare to other industry-specific AI applications?
- What future trends are expected in AI's?
