

We're proudly sponsoring the Private Funds CFO Europe Forum 2023

We're proud to be sponsoring the Private Funds CFO Europe Forum, 14 - 15 November.

Taking place in London, the CFO Forum is a leading event in the private markets calendar, and a great opportunity to hear from leading industry heavyweights and influential figures across the alternatives market.

James Duffield, Group Head of Business Development, will moderate 'Navigating challenges in a rising rates and inflationary climate' panel session, where he'll be joined by Raffael Rupprechter, Principal and CFO at Constellation Capital AG, Jesper Söderberg, Chief Financial Officer at Nordic Capital and Philippe Renault, Group Chief Operating Officer and Chief Financial Officer at Sienna Investment Managers.

The panel session will focus on how managers are adapting to changing market conditions, including:

- In a high interest rate environment is alternatives still looking attractive in general?
- Managing liquidity in the current economic climate. What are investors' return rate horizons across private markets?
- How is this market moving forward in the new age of fewer exit possibilities and higher interest rates?
- How are CFOs and COOs making sense of the higher rate environment?

The two-day event will offer a unique opportunity for providers to engage and connect with senior compliance professionals in the private equity sector through thought leadership, networking, and more.

A number of Aztec Group representatives will be attending the conference. If you'd like to set up a meeting, please contact James Duffield on James.Duffield@aztecgroup.co.uk.
