

We've strengthened our Real Assets leadership team

We're delighted to announce two leadership appointments in our Real Assets teams in Guernsey and Luxembourg.

In the Group's Luxembourg office, Pete Blackburn has been promoted to Director. In his new role, Pete will continue to have responsibility for a large portfolio of real estate clients and play a central role in shaping and driving the development of our Real Assets offering across Europe. Pete has over 18 years' industry experience in both Jersey and Luxembourg and has held roles overseeing fund of funds, venture capital, private equity, private debt, secondaries and real estate structures.

In Guernsey, Cassie Gibbons has been promoted to Associate Director. Since joining the Group in 2010, Cassie has worked in the UK and Guernsey offices across both our Private Equity and Real Assets teams. In her new role, she will oversee several client relationships and manage our day-to-day Real Assets operations in Guernsey.

Commenting on the promotions, Paul Conroy, Group Head of Real Assets, said:

"I'd like to congratulate Pete and Cassie on their well-deserved promotions. Both of them are long-standing employees with outstanding knowledge of the alternatives industry, and they have been instrumental in developing our Real Assets offering in their respective jurisdictions. Their extensive expertise and experience coupled with their leadership qualities will enable us to further reinforce our market-leading credentials in the real estate and infrastructure sectors".
